

THE PURPOSE OF THIS WEBSITE

We had initially reserved this web domain simply for email purposes, partly to establish an avenue for “official” ministry business. Since it includes free web hosting (on a limited basis, of course), we decided to employ that feature - at least in some simple fashion - rather than allow it to lie dormant. May God be served and pleased in this effort

That said, we have not formulated specific goals or future direction in any detail at this time. However, whether or not this website should develop beyond its current simplicity, we will endeavor toward the ultimate goal of every effort undertaken by any Christian: magnifying the one true God; making Him known in spirit and in truth; bringing Him praise, honor and glory, and pleasing Him through service to others for His purposes.

For now, we will post some of Dave’s work, and then soon perhaps, other informational and helpful writings, along with some links to additional worthwhile resources.

If you have “landed” here and desire some biblical advice or assistance, doctrinal information or clarification, or have questions or needs of any sort, please contact us via the link provided (Contact@NewCreationServantry.com). In the will of God, and by His gracious and merciful provision, we would count it a privilege to allow Him to meet your needs through whatever we can share.

Also, Dave is available to speak, teach and/or lead music for your group or event. Contact us to reserve a date/time.

Note: We do not solicit honorariums or love offerings, etc., for any of the services we offer on God’s behalf (nor do we judge others who do so appropriately).

May God’s blessings be yours in abundance!

Dave and Judi
